

CREVICE DISCOVERED IN SHAFT FAILS TO LEAD TO FLOYD COLLINS

Hope of Finding Underground Prisoner Disappears When Rescuer Runs Into Blank Wall

CAUSE OF A FALSE REPORT

News flashed Over Country Collins Had Been Heard to Call, And Later Was Taken Out Alive

"DIG ON" STILL THE WORD

Drilling Down to 75-Foot Level Fails To Locate Tunnel—Horizontal Shaft Likely

(By United Press)

At the Mouth of Sand Cave, Ky., Feb. 13—"Dig on!"

That was still the word at the shaft being sunk toward Floyd Collins' living tomb today.

Tense excitement caused by discovery of a crevice, sixteen inches wide, caused reports to be flashed over the country, first that Collins had been heard to call and later that he had been taken out alive.

All not directly connected with the rescue work were ordered back from the shaft when workers reported discovery of the crevice to H. T. Carmichael in charge of the operations.

H. H. Denhardt, military commander, rushed to the scene from Cave City. Red Cross nurses and doctors were told to be ready at anytime.

Then a rescue worker entered the shaft. He crawled along for twenty-five feet. Then he met a blank wall. So the excitement died and diggers went back to work.

They were heartened by the possibility that another crevice might prove more fruitful.

Drilling made early today as far down as the seventy-five foot level, had failed to indicate any cavities and it was asserted that the sole means of getting at Collins was to drive a horizontal tunnel from the shaft.

Repeated slides early today had made work so dangerous in the shaft plunging toward the rock prison of Floyd Collins that only experienced miners are assigned to the digging.

Sides of the shaft passing through the slimy muck and rocky mixture 58 feet below the surface caved four times in succession before timber men could shore them up. Collins is 70 feet below the earth, it is estimated.

"This is causing us to move much slower. Our work is complicated by the slides," H. T. Carmichael, in charge of digging operations asserted.

"Our estimate of reaching Collins 36 hours from today remains unchanged," he asserted.

The muck also has stopped the "X" ray drill which tests ground ahead of the shaft and which it was hoped might find a passage giving immediate access to Collins cell.

As dawn broke over the sodden scrub timber around the mouth of Sand Cave today, engineers still were uncertain when the explorer's cell will be reached. Glue-like muck is delaying sinking of the shaft towards him.

Grim men, red eyed from lack of sleep, struggled through the night, shoring up the sides of the shaft to prevent new cave-ins.

Collins may be brought out today

ORGANIZE FOR THE CAMPAIGN

Democratic City Committee Elects Officers Thursday Night

A democratic city organization was perfected Thursday night, when Voorhees Cavitt was elected chairman, Hannah Morris, secretary, and Bert Trabue, treasurer.

The meeting was held in the office of Gates Ketchum, and he presided until the organization was completed. Plans for the city election were discussed, and several candidates were mentioned, although no definite campaign plan was decided upon, and a further meeting will be held in the future. The meeting last night, was carried over from last Saturday, when the call was issued, and party workers were unable to attend until last night.

or he may not. Engineers cannot tell at which time their shaft will reach a cavern that may lead to the entombed men.

The shaft had reached a depth of 53 feet at 10 o'clock last night. This actually meant 58 feet below the surface as measurements are made only from the top of the timbered walls by officials.

The test drill could not work after it dropped through several feet of soft muck and reached a combination of mud and stone.

Timbering of the shaft and freezing of the engine's water supply stopped the drill temporarily.

Early Thursday night Carmichael told newspapermen it would be impossible to reach Collins before morning by any possible combination of luck and energy.

A Louisville newspaper is erecting a broadcasting station at the cave to serve its office with bulletins.

The military inquiry went on as usual today. H. H. Denhardt, commanding general here, said it probably would continue for several days.

Homer Collins, brother of Floyd took the stand late yesterday and told of his brother's life, his love for caves and his work among them.

Floyd sought to take with him the day the explorer was lost, his brother, Homer, but he refused to go.

TWO PRISONERS ARE ARRAIGNED

Bert Wilson Charged in Grand Jury Indictment With Assault and Battery with Intent to Murder

SHOT HIS WIFE LAST SUNDAY

Paul Floyd Pleads Not Guilty to Indictment Charging Forgery—Neither Able to Give Bond

Two grand jury indictments returned in the partial report made Thursday, were served this morning on the two prisoners held in jail, and they were arraigned this morning before Judge Sparks.

Bert Wilson, one of those accused is charged with assault and battery with intent to commit murder. He did not enter a plea, and was ordered to make a plea by next Wednesday. His bond was fixed at $3,000, and he was making an attempt today to secure his release.

Paul Floyd, the other prisoner, entered a plea of not guilty to the charge of forgery, and he went back to jail upon default of bond, which was placed at $1,500 by the court.

Floyd was arrested this week in Anderson when an alleged forgery was discovered. He was here last Saturday and appeared at the Myers grocery store in East Eighth street with a check for $10.50.

The check was made payable to him, and signed by Harry Schatz. After the grocer had cashed the check he became suspicious and called Schatz over the telephone, who stated that he had issued no check of that kind. The check was even drawn on a bank, other than the one in which Mr. Schatz does business. The check was said to be a crude example of check writing, which aroused Mr. Myers' suspicions after he had cashed it.

The matter was brought to the attention of the grand jury, after Floyd had been arrested in Anderson and returned here. He denied the charge this morning, and will stand trial on the charge.

Wilson, on the other hand, declined to enter a plea at this time, and will wait for his attorney from Connersville, and the court extended the time until next Wednesday.

The arrest on the third grand jury indictment was expected to be made today, as a bench warrant was issued, and given to the sheriff to serve.

The grand jury returned the three indictments, and recessed until probably next week, or a week later, at which time further investigations will be made.

STIRRING THINGS UP A BIT

Relentless Reporter Goes in Search of Friday, 13th Jinx

A Daily Republican reporter started out this morning to get the straight of this Friday the Thirteenth business.

He was an unsophisticated youth who had observed little, but had always taken the word of other people. He believed that myth about the Friday the Thirteenth jinx.

Obsessed with a burning desire to know the truth, he hid himself out early this morning, pencil and pad in hand as all first class movie reporters do, and armed with dauntless courage and a fully charged battery of questions, he literally ran to the public square.

This budding publicist was amazed to find the court house was still standing, serene and massive, not to the least concerned about impending catastrophe.

(But were his eyes deceiving him?) John Tittsworth was walking leisurely up the steep steps leading to the north entrance of the court house. (Didn't he know the steps were slick and that this was Friday the Thirteenth?) The reporter started to shout a warning, but thought better of it. (It was not his business to fool with fate.)

He heard a clatter down on the corner. Such an uproar. Biff, boom and a couple of bangs. He dashed to the scene, picturing.

NO FOWL PEST IS FOUND IN COUNTY

Dr. R. C. Julien, State Veterinarian, Posts Ten Birds on Three Farms This Morning

FOUND CHOLERA INSTEAD

Called on Account of Symptoms of Disease in Wildlife Separated Places—Quarantine in Effect

There is no European fowl pest in Rush county—at least none was discovered in suspected flocks in Washington and Richland townships, this morning, where Dr. R. C. Julien, state veterinarian, posted ten birds.

Dr. N. G. Wickwire, federal veterinarian assigned to Rush county during the fowl pest quarantine, accompanied Dr. Julien on the inspection trip this morning, and this afternoon he went to Posey township to post some poultry on a farm which was suspected of having the fowl pest.

"There will be no lessening of the strict quarantine on the transportation of poultry products until the survey of the county is completed," Dr. Wickwire asserted this afternoon.

The birds that were posted on farms in Washington and Richland township this morning were found to be suffering with cholera.

Dr. Wickwire had found symptoms of cholera, and on account of the close resemblance of cholera to the fowl pest, he called in the state veterinarian for a diagnosis of the diseases.

Dr. Julien was convinced that the flocks on one farm in Washington township and two in Richland township, where the posting took place this morning, are not infected with the fowl pest. He had to return to Indianapolis at noon and the suspected flock in Posey was to be examined by Dr. Wickwire.

On account of suspicions that the foreign plague might be in three widely separated districts of the county, Dr. Wickwire notified Dr. Julien of the situation Thursday, and instead of sending another veterinarian here from Muncie, as he first planned to do, Dr. Julien came himself.

Twelve Rush county veterinarians are making a survey of every flock of chickens in the county and the quarantine on poultry and poultry products will continue until they finish this work. In addition to veterinarians previously announced assisting in the campaign, Dr. H. P. Clark of Glenwood, is making the survey in Union township.

ADDRESSES H. S. PRESS CLUB

Head of Butler Journalism Department Criticizes School Paper

Prof. H. E. Birdsong, head of the Journalism department of Butler college, Indianapolis, spoke before the Press Club of the local high school, Thursday evening, in the assembly room of the high school. He offered criticisms on last year's Herald, the annual of the school, and also on this year's Rushite, the high school paper.

Mr. Birdsong offered many important suggestions to the members of the club in the publication of their annual this year and also in the editing of their newspaper. Preceding the meeting several members of the club, and Miss Jaehne, the club's sponsor, entertained Mr. Birdsong at dinner at the Lollis Hotel.

"BONE DRY" BILL WITHSTOOD ATTACK

Amendments Which Would Have Seriously Affected Provisions of Measure Defeated

SURVIVES SENATE ASSAULT

Motion for Indefinite Postponement of Further Consideration is Also Lost

(By United Press)

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 13—The house "bone dry" bill withstood a storm of attack in the state senate today when an amendment was introduced on second reading.

All of the amendments which would have seriously affected provisions of the measure were defeated.

The senate also defeated a motion of indefinite postponement of further consideration of the bill.

The provisions of the bill to make a search warrant valid if it contained an error was attached in an amendment introduced by Senator Branaman of Brownstown.

"As the bill stands now even the constitutional rights of the defendant who violates the liquor law, may be violated," Branaman declared. He said the legislature can not make a provision affecting a citizen's constitutional rights.

Senator Hodges of Gary said, however, that the provision would not affect a man's constitutional rights but would eliminate the possibility of a liquor law violation by release on a technical flaw in the warrant.

Senator Harmon of Princeton attacked the provision of the bill which would make the pouring of any fluid by any person during a raid prima facie evidence for conviction. He also attacked the provision making any vessel that might have contained liquor prima facie evidence.

Both these amendments were defeated.

Second reading of the bill was continued until this afternoon when more amendments are expected to be offered.

Further action of the DeHaven chiropractor's bill which was to have come up as special order of business in the house today, was postponed until next Wednesday afternoon.

NOT REGISTERED DOGS, HE SAYS

Donald Cook Files Suit Again Ben Wilson for $35 Damages

Donald Cook has filed suit in Justice Stech's court against Ben Wilson, seeking $35 damages, in which the purchase of two hound dogs are involved. The plaintiff alleges that he purchased the two dogs with the understanding that they were registered stock, and when he made application to have them registered, he charges that he discovered them to be ordinary dogs and not eligible to registry. He seeks judgment for $35, alleging that he paid $25 for the dogs and has expended an additional $10 on them.

The case will be set for trial February 17, at 9 o'clock.

SUITS INVOLVING $30,000 DISMISSED

Complaints Filed by Margaret and Blain Fritz Against Fred Clevenger Wiped Off Docket

FOR LACK OF PROSECUTION

Judgments on Notes Awarded in Several Cases—Court Refuses Payment on One Claim

Three law suits, totalling a demand for $30,000 judgment, were dismissed today by Judge Sparks because of lack of prosecution on the part of the plaintiffs, who brought the suits. They were all against Fred Clevenger, and filed by Mrs. Margaret Fritz and her son Blain Fritz.

In two of the complaints, each plaintiff demanded $10,000 judgment on a complaint for exemplary damages, charging that their reputation was ruined and that they were otherwise ridiculed and humiliated by the defendant in a court trial held here two years ago, when Clevenger was being tried for violation of the liquor laws.

In the third suit asking $10,000 judgment, Blain Fritz charged the defendant with malicious prosecution, and in which Fritz said that Clevenger had caused his false arrest and detention on a charge in Indianapolis.

In all three instances the cases have been set for trial on several occasions, and when it was set for trial this week, the plaintiffs failed to appear to prosecute their actions, and the cases were stricken from the docket by the court.

Several other court matters were taken up late Thursday and today, many of them involving actions against estates.

The case of the Hope State bank against the estate of Alvah Jenken, a suit on notes, the plaintiff filed, a motion for a change of venue from the county, and the case sent to Decatur county for trial by Judge Sparks.

In the complaint of Walter E. Smith against Roy Wiley and George Billings, a suit on a note, the evidence was heard and judgment for $508.64 and costs was entered against the defendant Billings.

In the suit of Vera Taborn against the estate of Albert Phillips, a claim, the amount of $125 was agreed upon, and ordered paid.

The State Bank of Milan was given judgment on their complaint on a note against Ella Grose and Paul Brodie. The amount was $62 and costs, and the judgment entered against Ella Grose, and continued as to Brodie.

A claim was also refused payment. In this case the Southeastern Indiana hospital at Madison was plaintiff against the estate of Otilie H. Kitley, in which the hospital asked $260 judgment. The claim was turned down because the claimant is a state institution.

A claim filed by William Gahmer against the estate of August Gahmer, amounting to $350 was dismissed and the costs paid.

Another claim amounting to $1,500 was granted by agreement, and in this case Margaret Miller is plaintiff and the estate of Mary Miller involved for the payment.

ASKS PROBE OF "GAS" PRICES

Resolution in Senate as Increase of 2 Cents is Announced

Washington, Feb. 13—Senator Trammell of Florida Thursday introduced a resolution calling for an investigation by the federal trade commission of the recent increases in the price of gasoline.

The resolution on which no action has been taken charged the increases were unwarranted and made arbitrarily.

Chicago, Ill., Feb. 13—Retail price of gasoline will be advanced two cents per gallon effective today, The Standard Oil Company of Indiana announced today. Kerosene will be increased one cent. The rapid advance in crude oil was given as the cause of advance in price. The increase is effective in eleven middle-western states of the company's territory.

BIBLE THOUGHT
—FOR TODAY—
Bible thoughts memorized will prove a precious heritage in after years.Joy for Weeping:—His anger endureth but a moment: in his favour is life: weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning. Psalm 30:5Prayer:—We bless thee, our loving Father, for thy Grace that makes all things work together for good to them that love thee.

Where Are We Going?

The superintendent of the state reformatory appeared before the senate finance and house ways and means committee and asked for an appropriation of $27,000 to tide the institution over until the end of the fiscal year in October.He gave as a reason the rapid increase in the population at the reformatory, which is for criminals under 30 years of age. The estimate for the 1923 appropriation was made on a basis of 900 inmates, but there are now 1,338 prisoners confined in the reformatory. Besides there are still 180 reformatory prisoners in the state prison at Michigan City.When the new reformatory program was presented to the 1923 legislature, it was said that provision for 1,200 prisoners would take care of the needs for one hundred years.And the men who made these recommendations were honest. They were based on statistics on reformatory population of the past.But in the past two years, crime has increased at such a rapid rate, especially among young men, that even the new reformatory has become inadequate before it is completed.Where are we drifting? What are we to expect of the next few years if disregard for law continues to increase as it has?Is the reformatory system a failure? Is the theory of reforming instead of punishing youthful criminals for misdeeds all wrong?Or should the legislature have passed the law making automobile banditry punishable with death? Are the penalties too mild?Here is a problem that deserves
the best thought of the best minds of Indiana.Surely we have been drifting in the wrong direction for some years past. Either the morale of the people has completely broken down or the whole scheme of dealing with the criminal is wrong.NEW LAMP BURNS
94% AIR

Beats Electric or Gas

A new oil lamp that gives an amazingly brilliant, soft, white light, even better than gas or electricity, has been tested by the U. S. Government and 35 leading universities and found to be superior to 10 ordinary oil lamps. It burns without odor, smoke or noise—no pumping up; is simple clean, safe. Burns 94% air and 6% common kerosene (coal oil).The inventor, J. N. Johnson, 609 W. Lake St., Chicago, Ill., is offering to send a lamp on 10 days' FREE trial, or even to give one FREE to the first user in each locality who will help him introduce it. Write him today for full particulars. Also ask him to explain how you can get the agency,
and without experience or money
make $250 to $500 per month.

A Code for Living

"Believe in God. Do not eat too much. Bathe frequently. See the bright side of life. Take plenty of exercise."This is the code of living that Countess Charlotte DeGalerie, Davenport, Iowa, follows. She is past 100 years of age, which should lend some weight to the rules she recommends.When visited by a newspaper reporter, the countess had just finished a three mile run over the ice-covered streets of an Indiana city where she was visiting.A small boy accompanying her as a guide was panting for breath, but she said she felt like challenging Paavo Nurmi for a marathon.She is vastly different from the woman who thought she was 94 years old, and upon learning she was ten years older, promptly took sick and died.The physicians would be idle, the undertakers would not be so busy and the country would be more thickly populated if it were possible to make people see the logic of living up to such a program.But the great majority of us are humanly frail. We are Christians though the outward manifestations are sometimes those of heathens. We permit our appetites and not our bodies needs to control what we eat.
We never have the time to take the proper care of our bodies. We naturally look for foreboding instead of sunshine. And we make ourselves a target for disease by failing to take the proper exercise.FIFTEEN YEARS

Hunt's Washington Letter

BY HARRY B. HUNT
NEA Service WriterWASHINGTON—Senator Rice
W. Means of Denver, Colo.,
is a gallant gentleman.
His gallantry was proved back
in the Spanish-American War, in 1898. After 27 years, the War Department is issuing the official citation recognizing his gallant conduct.Simultaneously, a citation for gallantry by Maj. Gen. Franklin
Bell is awarded.Bell, like Means, won his award
by bravery in action during the war with Spain. But he died before the 27 years needed to decide on the citation had expired. The silver star, material token of the award, goes to his widow.One cannot help but wonder whether, had Means not won election to the United States Senate,
his citation would have come during his lifetime.Did his election to the Senate,
we wonder, single him out for special attention and thus speed up recognition of his act?As a civilian soldier Means has no mean record. In the Philippine campaign of 1898, in connection with which he now is cited for gallantry, he won two recommendations for the Congressional Medal of Honor, was three times "mentioned in orders" and was promoted from the ranks to a commission.

As a member of the Colorado

National Guard he twice won the state trophy for being the best drilled soldier in that organization.
In the World War he was lieutenant colonel and commandant of the Fortieth Division School of Arms, and later commanded the Fourth Infantry in the Meuse-Argonne offensive.MAGNUS JOHNSON'S charges
that he was beaten for re-election by the bootleggers
of Minnesota has not created much of a stir here.Conceding the fact that bootleggers are in better standing with
many members of the Senate than
is the pugnacious Farm-Labor senator, it is still true that the charges brought by Johnson
against Representative Thomas D.
Schall, senator-elect, are hardly convincing.Certainly, on their face, they set up no such formidable case as was
brought against Senator Earle B.
Mayfield of Texas, whose election
has just been confirmed after a long and tedious inquiry.Briefly, Johnson charges that with "Schall's knowledge and consent," Minnesota bootleggers were coerced into contributing heavily
to the congressman's senatorial campaign fund.The levity with which many senators discuss the charges is indicated by the observation of one that he'd "bet Schall never saw a bootlegger in his life. He wouldn't know one if he saw one."

the girls are wearing the women's and the women, the girls.Revival of kemp growing is suggested in Kentucky. Not many people need more rope than they already have.A short session of the legislature was proposed. But it does not now appear what was meant by short.President Coolidge rides a high,

SAYSSome people live in a perpetual fog, which is why they go around blowing their own horn.Sometimes a man thinks women have no sense because he only knows the popular ones.As you think so you eventually look.Among a man's worst enemies are the friends who flatter him.Making trouble is too much trouble to be much fun.A bachelor is a man who has no one to throw his worn-out neckties away for him.Sometimes it is best to part with old friends just as in parting with old shoes, even though the new ones are uncomfortable.Almost time to start figuring on where you can borrow the money with which to pay your income tax.One bright sign that civilization is advancing is people are beginning to realize they should pay doctor bills.Sometimes we get mad and think all we get for our taxes are the receipts.The high cost of living seldom changes; usually staying around 10 per cent more than we have.Most of those in debt got there by trying to live up to what they claimed they are making.

You Can't Do Your Work
When Your Stomach Isn't Working---Take Di-JoIf you feel lousy and tired after your meal, there is ordinarily a good reason for it. Your stomach
isn't digesting your food properly
and your body feels the drag on your whole system.You can't feel bright and cheery and "rarin' to go" with such a drawback. Just go to your druggist and ask for Di-Jo. Take it regularly and you'll find it putting the spring into your step, and you'll notice how much better your stomach treats you
and what's more, you'll discover that your food is not only being eas-ily and properly digested but that it is giving your body the proper nourishment.Don't neglect your stomach and don't fail to help it with Di-Jo. This remedy is primarily an aid to digestion and just about nine times out
of ten you'll find that a sound stomach means a sound body. Ask your druggists for Di-Jo.If you are troubled with constipation take Di-VAC. It is sold by all

That county convention of high school delegates here Saturday will be as exciting as a basketball game. Each delegate has a vote, and judging from the list of nomination each delegate has one representative in mind. Just how these 12 delegates will get together and pick one from the county, will be interesting to watch.

AN INTERVIEW WITH PRES. COOLIDGE

A newspaper in Indiana without a sport column is just like an elephant without a trunk, one of its characteristics is missing. Today we pick up the Bedford Daily Mail and the Lebanon Reporter in the hopes that

A Good Thing - DON'T MISS IT

Send your name and address plainly written, together with 5 cents (and this slip) to Chamberlain Medicine Co., Des Moines, Iowa, and receive in return a trial package containing CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY for coughs, colds, croup, bronchitis, "flu" and whooping coughs, and tickling throat; CHAMBERLAIN'S TABLETS for stomach troubles, indigestion, gassy pains that crowd the heart, biliousness and constipation; CHAMBERLAIN'S SALVE, needed in every family for burns, scalds, wounds, piles and skin affections; these valued family medicines for only 5 cents. Don't miss it.

a newspaper at a place where they have a high school team like Bedford—or Lebanon, would start a good column before the end of the season. But no such luck. We threw the papers on the floor and glared at a picture of Calvin Coolidge that hangs over the desk and said: "What the heck is a newspaper without a sport column worth? And Coolidge, in his characteristic way, said nothing, absolutely nothing. Which we guess, is just about right.

HITIN' 'EM WANTS A PIECE THAT IS ALL ICING.

The toughest of tough luck is to win ten games and then have ole Mr. Hsaa come along and knock 'em down like a row of bricks. That is what he did for Kokomo. All ten games they won before the second semester must be forfeited 2 to 0, because Beatty was declared ineligible.

Those ten 2 to 0 scores sure knocks a big hole in the list of victories for Kokomo. One of them was with Frankfort, and that hurts worse than any of 'em.

PRIMARY LAW BILL TO DIE SLOW DEATH

Measure Providing for Referendum Lies in Committee With no Move Made For a Report

PRIMARY LEGISLATION DEAD

Gov. Jackson's Pronouncement in Message, to Keep Hands Off, Blocks Move to Kill Law

By RAYMOND A. BRUNER
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 13—The English bill for a referendum on the primary law will be permitted to die a slow death in the senate, it was indicated today.

The senate election committee, which has had the bill for four days, has made no move toward submitting a report on the measure.

It is understood that the majority of the committee members plan to let the bill rest in committee for some time yet and then make a recommendation for indefinite postponement.

Leaders of both houses declare that the question of revision of the primary laws is a dead issue as far as the present session of the legislature is concerned.

Governor Jackson's message to the legislature in which he told the assembly to keep hands off the primary law blocked the move of politicians for a revision of the law, administration legislative spokesmen declared.

Plans of the state banking commission for a revision of the banking laws apparently will not bear fruit at this session.

The senate Thursday afternoon killed the second bill to amend the banking laws. The bill had been introduced by Senator Southworth to overcome objections raised to another banking bill put to death earlier in the session.

Senators opposed to the bill defeated it with arguments that it would concentrate power in the hands of the state banking commission and squeeze out smaller private banks and trust companies.

The provision of the bill that the state banking department act as receiver for insolvent banks and trust companies met objection from lawyers in the senate.

Senator Cann of Frankfort made the motion by which the bill was indefinitely postponed.

With an amendment providing that cities and towns may hold local options on the question of Sunday movies and entertainments, the Leonard "blue Sunday" bill was reported out of committee in the senate and advanced to second reading.

The Leonard bill is intended to take the place of the Kissinger "blue Sunday" bill which was introduced in the house and which was believed too stringent to get by both houses.

By a vote of 52 to 41 the house killed the Wendell bill to give the public service commission jurisdiction over the sale of securities by public utilities.

Representative Harris of Gary, chairman of judiciary A committee, in recommending indefinite postponement, declared the bill did not give the commission any more power than it has under the present statutes.

"Members of the commission have admitted they already have the powers proposed in the Mendenhall bill," he said. "But they want it passed to give them backbone."

A plan for economy saved Senator Kings' bill to abolish monthly town-

We'll Take Care of the 13th

Relentless Reporter Goes in Search of Friday, 13th Jinx

a picturesque bank robbery or a fireless cooker fire, in his mind, as he ran. But, alas, Friday the Thirteenth might as well be any other day—Wilbur Stiers had just stepped on the burglar alarm button by mistake.

Glen Foster strode out of the bank across the way—northward bound on a winter's day. Manifestly, he was agitated, frankly worried. Reluctantly the reporter took up the trail, true to his vow to get at the truth of the jinx. But Glen didn't know it was Friday, the Thirteenth—he was just speeding up to make up for time lost during the bank holiday yesterday.

Morris Winship puffing his pipe as usual, over on the other bank corner, didn't know it was the Thirteenth, but he knew that tomorrow was payday. (No he didn't expect anyone to fall off the scaffold in the new bank building.)

Charlie Caron was sticking to his candy business as usual. Had heard it was Friday the Thirteenth but wasn't worried about anything except the basketball game.

Russ Casady confessed that he had quit reading calendars and almanacs long ago and didn't keep track of dates any more.

Clint Bodine removed his earmuffs to remark that he hadn't heard this was Friday the Thirteenth, and inquired, "What is a jinx?"

Fon Riggs said that there might be some truth in it. The Fathers had been wise enough to fix election day as far away from Friday as possible.

Spurred on by this encouragement, the relentless reporter went on in pursuit of the elusive myth.

He wandered and wandered—all the time wondering—(The chief of police was talking) "Hello, is this the Daily Republican office?"

"Well, what'll I do with this reporter of yours. He's raving mad about something that begins with 'F' and ends in 'x'. I asked how many letters there was in the word—I've worked a few cross word puzzles myself—but he won't answer.

"Let him go? No sir. I know when a man's gone nutty. I'll just keep him down here a few days until he sobers up."

ship teachers' institutes from being indefinitely postponed in the senate and the bill was advanced to second reading.

The senate advanced to engrossment the farmers' cooperative marketing bill and the Cann bill to increase the gasoline tax from two to three cents.

A favorable report was made by the senate finance committee on the administration bills to consolidate fees and taxes in the general fund and to make the budget committee a permanent body. The bill has already passed the house.

Kansas City—J. L. Niccoli, amateur from Denver, broke 100 straight targets to win the preliminary event of the 21st annual interstate trap shooting tournament here. Frank M. Toeb, Portland, Ore., finished second with 99 and Mark Aric, Champaign, Ill., was third with 98.

SPORT CHATTER

Kennett Square, Pa.—Herb Pennock, Yankee pitcher, announced he has not signed a new contract. Unless a suitable one is offered him, he will retire from baseball, devoting his time to raising silver foxes in Canada.

New York — Negotiations have been opened by the Boston Braves for the transfer of Irish Meusel, left fielder for the New York Giants. Several offers from other clubs for Meusel were turned down since the close of the season.

New York—Loren Marchison, champion indoor sprinter, has gone to San Francisco where he will join Charlie Paddock, outdoor champion, and sail for Japan on a tour of the world. They expect to join an American team that is to be sent to Sweden next summer.

"I wouldn't go into it for no kind of money except to get Floyd out," he said.

Floyd never had any trouble with John Gerald, so far as Homer knew. "Do you believe John Gerald tried to prevent Floyd's rescue?" one of the officers asked.

"No sir, I don't," Homer replied.

"So far as I know nobody tried to keep anybody from helping Floyd."

He told of the beautiful cavern Floyd said he discovered behind his present position. Later the interrogator concluded his examination by saying:

"Homer, there has been some talk about Floyd not being in the cave. Is there a man in there?"

"Yes, sir," Homer replied.

"Did you see him?"

"Yes, sir."

"Did you talk to him and touch him?"

"Yes sir."

"Is he your brother, Floyd?"

"He positively is, I know it. I was with him four times and I fed him myself."

Newspapermen are dropping in to Cave City by airplane, train and automobile. Nobody here knows how many have arrived nor whom they are. Some papers have five and six men here each.

Restaurant Man Didn't Eat His Own Food

"It's pretty tough for a restaurant man to have stomach trouble. My customers were always telling me I ought to eat in a good restaurant. The fact was I couldn't eat a thing that didn't bloat me up and no medicine or doctors helped me. I tried everything recommended and at last May's Wonderful Remedy, and I assure you I didn't have to look any further. Since taking it I have been a well man." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. For sale by druggists everywhere.

"A Man Must Live," Princess

When "A Man Must Live" is shown at the Princess theatre today and Saturday it will mark the appearance of a new star and a new director. The star is Richard Dix, and this is only the second picture in which he has had stellar honors, the first being "Manhattan." However, Dix has been playing featured roles in films for some time, notably in "The Ten Commandments" and "Sinners in Heaven", and has a host of admirers. Many declare his work reminds them of that of the late Wallace Reid. Dix has the same sort of aggressive, pleasing personality that made the one and only Wally an idol.

"A Man Must Live" is the first picture ever directed by Paul Sloane, long a prominent screen and stage writer. Sloane was responsible for the story of the popular "Over the Hill," among others, and has mastered the rather intricate art of filmmaking through years of studio experience.

In "A Man Must Live," Dix plays the part of a newspaper reporter who is called upon to face the dilemma of either writing a scandal story about the brother of the girl he loves or of starving to death. Edna Murphy impersonates the sweetheart, and Jacqueline Logan has a prominent role also. The picture is a Paramount and is said to be well filled with engrossing entertainment.

"The Family Secret," Castle

When one sees a picture such as "The Family Secret," his faith in the progress and future of the motion picture industry is immediately strengthened.

For in this one can see the careful planning, the building process, the gambling instinct behind the giant wheels which have pushed this industry so rapidly to the front in the commercial and artistic worlds. Not that the picture is necessarily a marvel of creation in any sense, but the germ of a purpose is there which makes the picture as distinctly unusual.

It means that the Universal Pictures Corporation, one of the oldest and most firmly established of picture companies, has risked many thousands of dollars on a production in which the star is a little girl five year old.

The child is Baby Peggy, a short time ago a "comedy kiddie" in Century Comedies, and now one of the most famous of child stars.

"The Family Secret," opened today at the Castle theatre, is a screen version of "Editha's Bargain," Frances Hodgson Burnett's famous novel, from which Augustus Thomas wrote his first big stage success. The picture has been built into an exceedingly entertaining drama by William Seiter, the director, thanks also to the cast, which includes Gladys Hulette, Edward Earle and Frank Currier.

Hope of Finding Underground Prisoner Disappears When Rescuer Runs Into Blank Wall

CAUSE OF A FALSE REPORT

News flashed Over Country Collins Had Been Heard to Call, And Later Was Taken Out Alive

"DIG ON" STILL THE WORD

Drilling Down to 75-Foot Level Fails To Locate Tunnel—Horizontal Shaft Likely

(By United Press)

At the Mouth of Sand Cave, Ky., Feb. 13—"Dig on!"

That was still the word at the shaft being sunk toward Floyd Collins' living tomb today.

Tense excitement caused by discovery of a crevice, sixteen inches wide, caused reports to be flashed over the country, first that Collins had been heard to call and later that he had been taken out alive.

All not directly connected with the rescue work were ordered back from the shaft when workers reported discovery of the crevice to H. T. Carmichael in charge of the operations.

H. H. Denhardt, military commander, rushed to the scene from Cave City. Red Cross nurses and doctors were told to be ready at anytime.

Then a rescue worker entered the shaft. He crawled along for twenty-five feet. Then he met a blank wall. So the excitement died and diggers went back to work.

They were heartened by the possibility that another crevice might prove more fruitful.

Drilling made early today as far down as the seventy-five foot level, had failed to indicate any cavities and it was asserted that the sole means of getting at Collins was to drive a horizontal tunnel from the shaft.

Repeated slides early today had made work so dangerous in the shaft plunging toward the rock prison of Floyd Collins that only experienced miners are assigned to the digging.

Sides of the shaft passing through the slimy muck and rocky mixture 58 feet below the surface caved four times in succession before timber men could shore them up. Collins is 79 feet below the earth, it is estimated.

"This is causing us to move much slower. Our work is complicated by the slides," H. T. Carmichael, in charge of digging operations asserted.

"Our estimate of reaching Collins 36 hours from today remains unchanged," he asserted.

The muck also has stopped the "X" ray drill which tests ground ahead of the shaft and which it was hoped might find a passage giving immediate access to Collins cell.

As dawn broke over the sudden scrub timber around the mouth of Sand Cave today, engineers still were uncertain when the explorer's cell will be reached. Glue-like muck is delaying sinking of the shaft towards him.

Grim men, red eyed from lack of sleep, struggled through the night, shoring up the sides of the shaft to prevent new cave-ins.

Collins may be brought out today

ORGANIZE FOR THE CAMPAIGN

Democratic City Committee Elects Officers Thursday Night

A democratic city organization was perfected Thursday night, when Vorhees Cavitt was elected chairman, Hannah Morris, secretary, and Bert Trabue, treasurer.

The meeting was held in the office of Gates Ketchum, and he presided until the organization was completed. Plans for the city election were discussed, and several candidates were mentioned, although no definite campaign plan was decided upon, and a further meeting will be held in the future. The meeting last night, was carried over from last Saturday, when the call was issued, and party workers were unable to attend until last night.

or he may not. Engineers cannot tell at which time their shaft will reach a cavern that may lead to the entombed men.

The shaft had reached a depth of 53 feet at 10 o'clock last night. This actually meant 58 feet below the surface as measurements are made only from the top of the timbered walls by officials.

The test drill could not work after it dropped through several feet of soft muck and reached a combination of mud and stone.

Timbering of the shaft and freezing of the engine's water supply stopped the drill temporarily.

Early Thursday night Carmichael told newspapermen it would be impossible to reach Collins before morning by any possible combination of luck and energy.

A Louisville newspaper is erecting a broadcasting station at the cave to serve its office with bulletins.

The military inquiry went on as usual today. H. H. Denhardt, commanding general here, said it probably would continue for several days.

Homer Collins, brother of Floyd took the stand late yesterday and told of his brother's life, his love for caves and his work among them.

Floyd sought to take with him the day the explorer was lost, his brother, Homer, but he refused to go.

TWO PRISONERS ARE ARRAIGNED

Bert Wilson Charged in Grand Jury Indictment With Assault and Battery with Intent to Murder

SHOT HIS WIFE LAST SUNDAY

Paul Floyd Pleads Not Guilty to Indictment Charging Forgery—Neither Able to Give Bond

Two grand jury indictments returned in the partial report made Thursday, were served this morning on the two prisoners held in jail, and they were arraigned this morning before Judge Sparks.

Bert Wilson, one of those accused is charged with assault and battery with intent to commit murder. He did not enter a plea, and was ordered to make a plea by next Wednesday. His bond was fixed at $3,000, and he was making an attempt today to secure his release.

Paul Floyd, the other prisoner, entered a plea of not guilty to the charge of forgery, and he went back to jail upon default of bond, which was placed at $1,500 by the court. Floyd was arraigned this week in Anderson when an alleged forgery was discovered. He was here last Saturday and appeared at the Myers grocery store in East Eighth street with a check for $10.50.

The check was made payable to him, and signed by Harry Schatz. After the grocer had cashed the check he became suspicious and called Schatz over the telephone, who stated that he had issued no check of that kind. The check was even drawn on a bank other than the one in which Mr. Schatz does business. The check was said to be a crude example of check writing, which aroused Mr. Myers' suspicions after he had cashed it.

The matter was brought to the attention of the grand jury, after Floyd had been arrested in Anderson and returned here. He denied the charge this morning, and will stand trial on the charge.

Wilson, on the other hand, declined to enter a plea at this time, and will wait for his attorney from Commersville, and the court extended the time until next Wednesday.

The arrest on the third grand jury indictment was expected to be made today, as a bench warrant was issued, and given to the sheriff to serve.

The grand jury returned the three indictments, and recessed until probably next week, or a week later, at which time further investigations will be made.

STIRRING THINGS UP A BIT

Relentless Reporter Goes in Search of Friday, 13th Jinx

A Daily Republican reporter started out this morning to get the straight of this Friday the Thirteenth business.

He was an unsophisticated youth who had observed little, but had always taken the word of other people. He believed that myth about the Friday the Thirteenth jinx.

Obsessed with a burning desire to know the truth, he hid himself out early this morning, pencil and pad in hand as all first class movie reporters do, and armed with dauntless courage and a fully charged battery of questions, he literally ran to the public square.

This budding publicist was amazed to find the court house was still standing, serene and massive, not to the least concerned about impending catastrophe.

(But were his eyes deceiving him?) John Titworth was walking leisurely up the steep steps leading to the north entrance of the court house. (Didn't he know the steps were slick and that this was Friday the Thirteenth?) The reporter started to shout a warning, but thought better of it. (It was not his business to fool with fate.)

He heard a clatter down on the corner. Such an uproar. Biff, boom and a couple of bangs. He dashed to the scene, picturing (Continued on Page Five)

FORMER GLENWOOD WOMAN DIES AT PEORIA

Miss Jessie Jeffrey, Age Thirty-Four Years, Expires Thursday and Body Will be Brought Here

FUNERAL SUNDAY AT 2 P. M.

Miss Jessie Jeffrey, age thirty-three years, and formerly a resident of Glenwood, died at her home in Peoria, Illinois, Thursday, according to a message received this morning by her brother, Arthur C. Jeffrey, 518 East Tenth street.

The cause of her death was not learned. The body will be brought to the home of the deceased's brother here, where funeral services will be held Sunday afternoon at two o'clock, and burial will take place in Fairview cemetery.

Miss Jeffrey was born in Fayette county in September, 1890, and lived in Glenwood most of her life, until four years ago, when she went to Peoria for residence.

Besides the brother living here, the deceased is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Harry Culbertson of Glenwood and Mrs. Ethel Clifford of Peoria, and one other brother, Albert Jeffrey of Chicago. Her parents are dead.

NO FOWL PEST IS FOUND IN COUNTY

Dr. R. C. Julien, State Veterinarian, Posts Ten Birds on Three Farms This Morning

FOUND CHOLERA INSTEAD

Called on Account of Symptoms of Disease in Widely Separated Places—Quarantine in Effect

There is no European fowl pest in Rush county—at least none was discovered in suspected flocks in Washington and Richland townships, this morning, where Dr. R. C. Julien, state veterinarian, posted ten birds.

Dr. N. G. Wickwire, federal veterinarian assigned to Rush county during the fowl pest quarantine, accompanied Dr. Julien on the inspection trip this morning, and this afternoon he went to Posey township to post some poultry on a farm which was suspected of having the fowl pest.

"There will be no lessening of the strict quarantine on the transportation of poultry products until the survey of the county is completed," Dr. Wickwire asserted this afternoon.

The birds that were posted on farms in Washington and Richland township this morning were found to be suffering with cholera.

Dr. Wickwire had found symptoms of cholera, and on account of the close resemblance of cholera to the fowl pest, he called in the state veterinarian for a diagnosis of the diseases.

Dr. Julien was convinced that the flocks on one farm in Washington township and two in Richland township, where the posting took place this morning, are not infected with the fowl pest. He had to return to Indianapolis at noon and the suspected flock in Posey was to be examined by Dr. Wickwire.

On account of suspicions that the foreign plague might be in three widely separated districts of the county, Dr. Wickwire notified Dr. Julien of the situation Thursday, and instead of sending another veterinarian here from Muncie, as he first planned to do, Dr. Julien came himself.

Twelve Rush county veterinarians are making a survey of every flock of chickens in the county and the quarantine on poultry and poultry products will continue until they finish this work. In addition to veterinarians previously announced as assisting in the campaign, Dr. H. P. Clark of Glenwood, is making the survey in Union township.

ADDRESSES H. S. PRESS CLUB

Head of Butler Journalism Department Criticizes School Paper

Prof. H. E. Birdsong, head of the Journalism department of Butler college, Indianapolis, spoke before the Press Club of the local high school, Thursday evening, in the assembly room of the high school. He offered criticisms on last year's Herald, the annual of the school, and also on this year's Rushite, the high school paper.

Mr. Birdsong offered many important suggestions to the members of the club in the publication of their annual this year and also in the editing of their newspaper. Preceding the meeting several members of the club, and Miss Jaehne, the club's sponsor, entertained Mr. Birdsong at dinner at the Lollis Hotel.

"BONE DRY" BILL WITHSTOOD ATTACK

Amendments Which Would Have Seriously Affected Provisions of Measure Defeated

SURVIVES SENATE ASSAULT

Motion for Indefinite Postponement of Further Consideration is Also Lost

(By United Press)

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 13—The house "bone dry" bill withstood a storm of attack in the state senate today when an amendment was introduced on second reading.

All of the amendments which would have seriously affected provisions of the measure were defeated.

The senate also defeated a motion of indefinite postponement of further consideration of the bill.

The provisions of the bill to make a search warrant valid if it contained an error was attached in an amendment introduced by Senator Branaman of Brownstown.

"As the bill stands now even the constitutional rights of the defendant who violates the liquor law, may be violated," Branaman declared. He said the legislature can not make a provision affecting a citizen's constitutional rights.

Senator Hodges of Gary said, however, that the provision would not affect a man's constitutional rights but would eliminate the possibility of a liquor law violation by release on a technical flaw in the warrant.

Senator Harmon of Princeton attacked the provision of the bill which would make the pouring of any fluid by any person during a raid prima facie evidence for conviction. He also attacked the provision making any vessel that might have contained liquor prima facie evidence.

Both these amendments were defeated.

Second reading of the bill was continued until this afternoon when more amendments are expected to be offered.

Further action of the DeHaven chiropractor's bill which was to have come up as special order of business in the house today, was postponed until next Wednesday afternoon.

NOT REGISTERED DOGS, HE SAYS

Donald Cook Files Suit Again Ben Wilson for $35 Damages

Donald Cook has filed suit in Justice Steel's court against Ben Wilson, seeking $35 damages, in which the purchase of two hound dogs are involved. The plaintiff alleges that he purchased the two dogs with the understanding that they were registered stock, and when he made application to have them registered, he charges that he discovered them to be ordinary dogs and not eligible to registry. He seeks judgment for $35, alleging that he paid $25 for the dogs and has expended an additional $10 on them.

The case will be set for trial February 17, at 9 o'clock.

SUITS INVOLVING $30,000 DISMISSED

Complaints Filed by Margaret and Blain Fritz Against Fred Clevenger Wiped Off Docket

FOR LACK OF PROSECUTION

Judgments on Notes Awarded in Several Cases—Court Refuses Payment on One Claim

Three law suits, totalling a demand for $30,000, judgment, were dismissed today by Judge Sparks because of lack of prosecution on the part of the plaintiffs, who brought the suits: They were all against Fred Clevenger, and filed by Mrs. Margaret Fritz and her son Blain Fritz.

In two of the complaints, each plaintiff demanded $10,000 judgment on a complaint for exemplary damages, charging that they were otherwise ridiculed and humiliated by the defendant in a court trial held here two years ago, when Clevenger was being tried for violation of the liquor laws.

In the third suit asking $10,000 judgment, Blain Fritz charged the defendant with malicious prosecution, and in which Fritz said that Clevenger had caused his false arrest and detention on a charge in Indianapolis.

In all three instances the cases have been set for trial on several occasions, and when it was set for trial this week, the plaintiffs failed to appear to prosecute their actions, and the cases were stricken from the docket by the court.

Several other court matters were taken up late Thursday and today, many of them involving actions against estates.

The case of the Hope State bank against the estate of Alvah Jenken, a suit on notes, the plaintiff filed, a motion for a change of venue from the county, and the case sent to Decatur county for trial by Judge Sparks.

In the complaint of Walter E. Smith against Roy Wiley and George Billings, a suit on a note, the evidence was heard and judgment for $508.64 and costs was entered against the defendant Billings.

In the suit of Vera Taborn against the estate of Albert Phillips, a claim, the amount of $125 was agreed upon, and ordered paid.

The State Bank of Milan was given judgment on their complaint on a note against Ella Grose and Paul Brodie. The amount was $62 and costs, and the judgment entered against Ella Grose, and continued as to Brodie.

A claim was also refused payment. In this case the Southeastern Indiana hospital at Madison was plaintiff against the estate of Otille H. Kitley, in which the hospital asked $260 judgment. The claim was turned down, because the claimant is a state institution.

A claim filed by William Gabimer against the estate of August Gabimer, amounting to $350 was dismissed and the costs paid.

Another claim amounting to $1,500 was granted by agreement, and in this case Margaret Miller is plaintiff and the estate of Mary Miller involved for the payment.

ASKS PROBE OF "GAS" PRICES

Resolution in Senate as Increase of 2 Cents is Announced

Washington, Feb. 13—Senator Trammell of Florida Thursday introduced a resolution calling for an investigation by the federal of trade commission of the recent increases in the price of gasoline.

The resolution on which no action has been taken charged the increases were unwarranted and made arbitrarily.

Chicago, Ill., Feb. 13—Retail price of gasoline will be advanced two cents per gallon effective today, The Standard Oil Company of Indiana announced today. Kerosene will be increased one cent. The rapid advance in crude oil was given as the cause of advance in price. The increase is effective in eleven middle-western states of the company's territory.

Joy for Weeping—His anger endureth but a moment: in his favour is life: weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning. Psalm 30:5
Prayer—We bless thee, our loving Father, for thy Grace that makes all things work together for good to them that love thee.

Where Are We Going?

The superintendent of the state reformatory appeared before the senate finance and house ways and means committee and asked for an appropriation of $27,000 to tide the institution over until the end of the fiscal year in October.

He gave as a reason the rapid increase in the population at the reformatory, which is for criminals under 30 years of age. The estimate for the 1923 appropriation was made on a basis of 900 inmates, but there are now 1,338 prisoners confined in the reformatory. Besides there are still 180 reformatory prisoners in the state prison at Michigan City.

When the new reformatory program was presented to the 1923 legislature, it was said that provision for 1,200 prisoners would take care of the needs for one hundred years.

And the men who made these recommendations were honest. They were based on statistics on reformatory population of the past.

But in the past two years, crime has increased at such a rapid rate, especially among young men, that even the new reformatory has become inadequate before it is completed.

Where are we drifting? What are we to expect of the next few years if disregard for law continues to increase as it has?

Is the reformatory system a failure? Is the theory of reforming instead of punishing youthful criminals for misdeeds all wrong?

Or should the legislature have passed the law making automobile handiwork punishable with death? Are the penalties too mild?

Here is a problem that deserves the best thought of the best minds of Indiana.

Surely we have been drifting in the wrong direction for some years past. Either the morale of the people has completely broken down or the whole scheme of dealing with the criminal is wrong.

NEW LAMP BURNS 94% AIR

Beats Electric or Gas

A new oil lamp that gives an amazingly brilliant, soft, white light, even better than gas or electricity, has been tested by the U. S. Government and 35 leading universities and found to be superior to 10 ordinary oil lamps. It burns without odor, smoke or noise—no pumping up; is simple, clean, safe. Burns 94% air and 6% common kerosene (coal oil).

The inventor, J. N. Johnson, 609 W. Lake St., Chicago, Ill., is offering to send a lamp on 10 days' FREE trial, or even to give one FREE to the first user in each locality who will help him introduce it. Write him today for full particulars. Also ask him to explain how you can get the agency, and without experience or money make $250 to $500 per month.

A Code for Living

"Believe in God. Do not eat too much. Bathe frequently. See the bright side of life. Take plenty of exercise."

This is the code of living that Countess Charlotte DeGalerie, Davenport, Iowa, follows. She is past 100 years of age, which should lend some weight to the rules she recommends.

When visited by a newspaper reporter, the countess had just finished a three mile run over the ice-covered streets of an Indiana city where she was visiting.

A small boy accompanying her as a guide was panting for breath, but she said she felt like challenging Paavo Nurmi for a marathon.

She is vastly different from the woman who thought she was 94 years old, and upon learning she was ten years older, promptly took sick and died.

The physicians would be idle, the undertakers would not be so busy and the country would be more thickly populated if it were possible to make people see the logic of living up to such a program.

But the great majority of us are humanly frail. We are Christians though the outward manifestations are sometimes those of heathens. We permit our appetites and not our bodily needs to control what we eat. We never have the time to take the proper care of our bodies. We naturally look for foreboding instead of sunshine. And we make ourselves a target for disease by failing to take the proper exercise.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO TODAY

From Daily Republican
Monday, Feb. 14, 1910

In a few short months there will be a new three story bank building on the northeast corner of Second and Main streets. The Rushville National bank this morning closed a deal for the building now occupied by Casady Cox, J. T. Arbuckle, Elder and Cherry and the Kennard jewelry store.

The Rev. Walter Frazee of Louisville, Ky., is expected home tonight for a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Frazee and family in North Harrison street.

On the last night of skating at the Kramer rink, and just twenty minutes before closing time, Frank Priest suffered an injury which will disable him for some time.

That Rushville is badly in need of a city hall was unmistakably proved when Verne Norris, county chairman, started out to find a place in which to hold the Republican county convention.

Gladstone Barrett, who is a student in Indiana University, was the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Barrett, in North Harrison street Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Elizabeth Hackleman and Mrs. Anna Beachard left today for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Greenlee in Indianapolis.

Albert Brister of Indianapolis spent Sunday here, the guest of friends.

Miss Helen Sexton who has been attending school at Delaware, Ohio, is at home on account of sickness.

Mrs. Fred L. Virtue returned to her home in Dayton, Ohio, yesterday after being the guest of her mother, Mrs. Rebecca Wilson and family in West First street for the past few weeks.

The Indiana Presbytery met this afternoon at the United Presbyterian church in this city and acted on the resignation of Rev. W. H. Clark. A six pound girl was born to the wife of Cliff Wiley living northeast of the city yesterday morning.

What has the appearance of being the most pretentious social function of the season will be given at the Social club house tomorrow evening by Mr. and Mrs. William P. Jay, Mr. and Mrs. Harrie O. Jones and Mr. and Mrs. William M. Bliss. Over one hundred and fifty invitations have been issued, many of them including guests from a distance.

Earl Robertson has resigned his position as soloist at the Star-Grand theatre.

The Young Ladies Mission Circle of the Main Street Christian church will meet with Miss Nelle Pearce at her home in West Fourth street this evening.

Hunt's Washington Letter

BY HARRY B. HUNT

NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON—Senator Rice

W. Means of Denver, Colo.,

is a gallant gentleman.

His gallantry was proved back

in the Spanish-American War. In

1898, after 27 years, the War Department is issuing the official

citation recognizing his gallant conduct.

Simultaneously, a citation for

gallantry by Maj. Gen. Franklin

Bell is awarded.

Bell, like Means, won his award

by bravery in action during the war with Spain. But he died before the 27 years needed to decide

on the citation had expired. The silver star, symbolic token of the award, goes to his widow.

One cannot help but wonder whether, had Means not won election to the United States Senate, his citation would have come during his lifetime.

Did his election to the Senate,

we wonder, single him out for special attention and thus speed up recognition of his act?

As a civilian soldier Means has a mean record. In the Philippine campaign of 1898, in

connection with which he now is

cited for gallantry, he won two

recommendations for the Congressional

Medal of Honor, was three times "mentioned in orders" and

was promoted from the ranks to a

commission.

MAGNUS JOHNSON'S charges
that he was beaten for re-
election by the bootleggers
of Minnesota has not created much
of a stir here.

Conceding the fact that bootleggers are in better standing with
many members of the Senate than
is the pugnacious Farm-Labor senator, it is still true that the
charges brought by Johnson
against Representative Thomas P.
Schall, senator-elect, are hardly convincing.

Certainly, on their face, they set up no such formidable case as was
brought against Senator Earle B.
Mayfield of Texas, whose election
has just been confirmed after a long and tedious inquiry.

Briefly, Johnson charges that
with "Schall's knowledge and consent," Minnesota bootleggers were
coerced into contributing heavily
to the congressman's senatorial campaign fund.

The levity with which many senators discuss the charges is indicated by the observation of one
that he'd "bet Schall never saw a bootlegger in his life. He wouldn't know one if he saw one."

You Can't Do Your Work When Your Stomach Isn't Working—Take Di-Jo

If you feel lousy and tired after your meal, there is ordinarily a
good reason for it. Your stomach
isn't digesting your food properly
and your body feels the drag on your whole system.

You can't feel bright and cheery and "rain" to go with such a drawback. Just go to your druggist and ask for Di-Jo. Take it regularly and
you'll find it putting the spring into
your step, and you'll notice how
much better your stomach treats you
and what's more, you'll discover that your food is not only being easily and properly digested but that it

is giving your body the proper nourishment.

Don't neglect your stomach and don't fail to help it with Di-Jo. This
remedy is primarily an aid to digestion and just about nine times out
of ten you'll find that a sound stomach means a sound body. Ask your druggists for Di-Jo.

If you are troubled with constipation take Di-VAC. It is sold by all druggists and is recommended to be used in connection with Di-Jo, if any is needed.

Hoosier Courtship in the Richmond Palladium warns the citizens to be on the lookout tonight for vicious bull dogs. Correct he is, because those Columbus tossers have a very snapping way about 'em.

How About Breaking Training?

The Washington team will be entertained with a dinner this evening at the Methodist church, says Speaking of Sports down at Washington.

THEY MAY NEED A REFEREE

That county convention of high school delegates here Saturday will be as exciting as a basketball game. Just how these 12 delegates will get together and pick one from the county, will be interesting to watch.

AN INTERVIEW WITH PRES. COOLIDGE

A newspaper in Indiana without a sport column is just like an elephant without a trunk. One of its characteristics is missing. Today we pick up the Bedford Daily Mail and the Lebanon Reporter in the hopes that a newspaper at a place where they have a high school team like Bedford—or Lebanon, would start a good column before the end of the season. But no such luck. We threw the papers on the floor and glared at a picture of Calvin Coolidge that hangs over the desk and said: "What the heck is a newspaper without a sport column worth? And Coolidge, in his characteristic way, said nothing, absolutely nothing. Which we guess, is just about right."

WE PREFER CAKE TO BACON, ANY DAY

Let's bring this cake back home. Listen to what Free Throws in the Free Press says:

"The Gem bakery has a large Red and White cake in their window on which is printed, 'Tame Them Lions'."

HITTING 'EM WANTS A PIECE THAT IS ALL ICING.

The toughest of tough luck is to win ten games and then have Mr. Hsua come along and knock 'em down like a row of bricks. That is what he did for Kokomo. All ten games they won before the second semester must be forfeited 2 to 6, because Beatty was declared ineligible.

Those ten 2 to 0 scores sure knocks a big hole in the list of victories for Kokomo. One of them was with Frankfort, and that hurts worse than any of 'em.

George Purcell wants to know if the brick goes along on that trip to Niagara Falls. It probably does, but unless someone pries it loose from Greencastle, it won't be Vincennes acting as escort.

Manilla plays at Greensburg tonight. Manilla is about due to spring the great unexpected. Let's hope they get it out of their system before journey time. They held off last year and sprung it on Rushville. Remember?

PRIMARY LAW BILL TO DIE SLOW DEATH

Measure Providing for Referendum Lies in Committee With no Move Made For a Report

PRIMARY LEGISLATION DEAD

Gov. Jackson's Pronouncement in Message, to Keep Hands Off, Blocks Move to Kill Law

By RAYMOND A. BRUNER
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 13.—The English bill for a referendum on the primary law will be permitted to die a slow death in the senate, it was indicated today.

The senate election committee, which has had the bill for four days, has made no move toward submitting a report on the measure.

It is understood that the majority of the committee members plan to let the bill rest in committee for some time yet and then make a recommendation for indefinite postponement.

Leaders of both houses declare that the question of revision of the primary law is a dead issue as far as the present session of the legislature is concerned.

Governor Jackson's message to the legislature in which he told the assembly to keep hands off the primary law blocked the move of politicians for a revision of the law, administration legislative spokesmen declared.

Plans of the state banking commission for a revision of the banking laws apparently will not bear fruit at this session.

The senate Thursday afternoon killed the second bill to amend the banking laws. The bill had been introduced by Senator Southworth to overcome objections raised to another banking bill put to death earlier in the session.

Senators opposed to the bill defeated it with arguments that it would concentrate power in the hands of the state banking commission and squeeze out smaller private banks and trust companies.

The provision of the bill that the state banking department act as receiver for insolvent banks and trust companies met objection from lawyers in the senate.

Senator Cunn of Frankfort made the motion by which the bill was indefinitely postponed.

With an amendment providing that cities and towns may hold local options on the question of Sunday movies and entertainments, the Leonard "blue Sunday" bill was reported out of committee in the senate and advanced to second reading.

The Leonard bill is intended to take the place of the Kissenger "blue Sunday" bill which was introduced in the house and which was believed too stringent to get by both houses.

By a vote of 52 to 41 the house killed the Wendell bill to give the public service commission jurisdiction over the sale of securities by public utilities.

Representative Harris of Gary, chairman of judiciary A committee, in recommending indefinite postponement, declared the bill did not give the commission any more power than it has under the present statutes.

Members of the commission have admitted they already have the powers proposed in the Wendell bill, he said. "But they want it passed to 'give them backbone.'"

A plea for economy saved Senator Kings' bill to abolish monthly town-

Relentless Reporter Goes in Search of Friday, 13th Jinx

A picturesque bank robbery or a fireless cooker fire, in his mind, as he ran. But, alas, Friday the Thirteenth might as well be any other day—Wilbur Stiers had just stepped on the burglar alarm-button by mistake.
Glen Foster strode out of the bank across the way—northward bound on a winter's day. Manifestly, he was agitated, frankly worried. Reluctantly the reporter took up the trail, true to his vow to get at the truth of the jinx. But Glen didn't know it was Friday, the Thirteenth—he was just speeding up to make up for time lost during the bank holiday yesterday.

Morris Winship puffing his pipe as usual, over on the other bank corner, didn't know it was the Thirteenth, but he knew that tomorrow was payday. (No he didn't expect anyone to fall off the scaffold in the new bank building.)

Charlie Caron was sticking to his candy business as usual. Had heard it was Friday the Thirteenth but wasn't worried about anything except the basketball game.

Russ Casady confessed that he had quit reading calendars and almanacs long ago and didn't keep track of dates any more.

Clint Bodine removed his earmuffs to remark that he hadn't heard this was Friday the Thirteenth, and inquired, "What is a jinx?"

Fon Riggs said that there might be some truth in it. The Fathers had been wise enough to fix election day as far away from Friday as possible.

Spurred on by this encouragement, the relentless reporter went on in pursuit of the elusive myth.

He wandered and wandered—all the time wondering—

(The chief of police was talking) "Hello, is this the Daily Republican office?"

"Well, what'll I do with this reporter of yours. He's raving mad about something that begins with 'F' and ends in 'x'. I asked how many letters there was in the word 'f'—worked a few cross word puzzles myself—but he won't answer."

"Let him go? No, sir. I know when a man's gone nutty. I'll just keep him down here a few days until he sobers up."

ship teachers' institutes from being indefinitely postponed in the senate and the bill was advanced to second reading.

The senate advanced to engrossment the farmers' cooperative marketing bill and the Cann bill to increase the gasoline tax from two to three cents.

A favorable report was made by the senate finance committee on the administration bills to consolidate fees and taxes in the general fund and to make the budget committee a permanent body. The bill has already passed the house.

SPORT CHATTER

Kennett Square, Pa.—Herb Penneck, Yankee pitcher, announced he has not signed a new contract. Unless a suitable one is offered him, he will retire from baseball, devoting his time to raising silver foxes in Canada.

New York — Negotiations have been opened by the Boston Braves for the transfer of Irish Meusel, left fielder for the New York Giants. Several offers from other clubs for Meusel were turned down since the close of the season.

New York—Loren Murchison, champion indoor sprinter, has gone to San Francisco where he will join Charlie Paddock, outdoor champion, and sail for Japan on a tour of the world. They expect to join an American team that is to be sent to Sweden next summer.

Crevice Discovered in Shaft Fails to Lead to Floyd Collins

"I wouldn't go into it for no kind of money except to get Floyd out," he said.

Floyd never had any trouble with John Gerald, so far as Homer knew. "Do you believe John Gerald tried to prevent Floyd's rescue?" one of the officers asked.

"No sir, I don't," Homer replied.

"So far as I know nobody tried to keep anybody from helping Floyd."

He told of the beautiful cavern Floyd said he discovered behind his present position. Later the interrogator concluded his examination by saying:

"Homer, there has been some talk about Floyd not being in the cave. Is there a man in there?"

"Yes, sir," Homer replied.

"Did you see him?"

"Yes, sir."

"Did you talk to him and touch him?"

"Yes sir."

"Is he your brother, Floyd?"

"He positively is, I know it. I was with him four times and I fed him myself."

"MEASURE OF A MAN"

"The Measure of a Man" is a big picture filmed amid the rugged beauty of the Big North Woods, Big Trees, Big Lakes, Big Men and Women. One scene shows the most terrific and realistic fight between two men ever screened.

Aggravating, Isn't It?

To be in such a hurry to get some place, say to a basket ball game or show, and then to have the old bus to start missing right at the critical moment? And nine times out of ten it can be avoided if the car has proper attention before starting out.

Let the MAYTAG MAN show you how to WASH CLOTHES

DIRECT from the factory he comes, at our request, to demonstrate the now famous washing principle of the Maytag Gyrafoam Washer.

It cleans with astonishing speed—a tubful of clothes in 3 to 7 minutes; or in an hour just twice as many clothes as any other washer!

A marvel in thoroughness—even on wristbands, cuffs, and collars. Amazing in the vigoriveness with which it cleans blankets, work clothes, and the tenderness with which it washes lingerie, laces and linens. Safer even than hand methods!

The miracle washer—try it. Have the Maytag Man show you how easy and simple it works. He'll bring it right to your home and wash everything that's soiled. No obligation at all. Phone without delay for appointment.

Restaurant Man Didn't Eat His Own Food

"It's pretty tough for a restaurant man to have stomach trouble. My customers were always telling me I ought to eat in a good restaurant. The fact was I couldn't eat a thing that didn't bloat me up and no medicine or doctors helped me. I tried everything recommended and at last May's Wonderful Remedy, and I assure you I didn't have to look any further. Since taking it I have been a well man." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. "A Man Must Live," Princess
When "A Man Must Live" is shown at the Princess theatre today and Saturday it will mark the appearance of a new star and a new director. The star is Richard Dix, and this is only the second picture in which he has had stellar honors, the first being "Manhattan." However, Dix has been playing featured roles in films for some time, notably in "The Ten Commandments" and "Sinners in Heaven", and has a host of admirers. Many declare his work reminds them of that of the late Wallace Reid. Dix has the same sort of aggressive, pleasing personality that made the one and only Wally an idol.

"A Man Must Live" is the first picture ever directed by Paul Sloane, long a prominent screen and stage writer. Sloane was responsible for the story of the popular "Over the Hill," among others, and has mastered the rather intricate art of filmmaking through years of studio experience.

In "A Man Must Live," Dix plays the part of a newspaper reporter who is called upon to face the dilemma of either writing a scandal story about the brother of the girl he loves or of starving to death. Edna Murphy impersonates the sweet-

For weak Run-down Condition!

THE DOOR of opportunity flings wide its portals only to the man who is up and doing—who is filled with pep and punch—with rich, red blood tingling through his system. Mountain size obstacles dwindle to ant hills and ambitions become accomplishments to these sort of men.

Where is the employer who seeks the man who is physically run-down? The man without stamina to withstand the knocks and gaff of the hurrying, scurrying world of business?

S.S.S. is the long established and time honored creator of red-blood-cells. You cannot expect to get very far up the ladder unless you are equipped with a body that is strong and vigorous. S.S.S. will start you on your way. Don't allow the "Door of Opportunity" to be closed to you because you have not the stamina to withstand the gaff — because your nerve power is lacking. Build up your system!

S.S.S. made of carefully selected and scientifically prepared and proportioned herbs and barks makes you fit! Get back that old time punch! When opportunity knocks be ready to answer the call!

S. S. S. is sold at all good drug stores in two sizes. The larger size is more economical.

heart, and Jacqueline Logan has a prominent role also. The picture is a Paramount and is said to be well filled with engrossing entertainment.

"The Family Secret," Castle

When one sees a picture such as "The Family Secret," his faith in the progress and future of the motion picture industry is immediately strengthened.

For in this one can see the careful planning, the building process, the gambling instinct behind the giant wheels which have pushed this industry so rapidly to the front in the commercial and artistic worlds.

Not that the picture is necessarily a marvel of creation in any sense, but the germ of a purpose is there which marks the picture as distinctly unusual.

It means that the Universal Pictures Corporation, one of the oldest and most firmly established of picture companies, has risked many thousands of dollars on a production in which the star is a little girl five year old.

The child is Baby Peggy, a short time ago a "comedy kiddie" in Century Comedies, and now one of the most famous of child stars.

"The Family Secret," opened today at the Castle theatre, is a screen version of "Editha's Burglar," Frances Hodgson Burnett's famous novel, from which Augustus Thomas wrote his first big stage success. The picture has been built into an exceedingly entertaining drama by William Seiter, the director, thanks also to the cast, which includes Gladys Hulette, Edward Earle and Frank Currier.
